David Bowie – the “Seeker of the Truth” is no longer among us. Following many honors and obituaries in memory of the fascinating personality, we will bring him back to Earth for 2 special weeks. Markus Klinko, who has worked with David Bowie, shows an exclusive selection of more than twenty original photos. Many have never been shown before including a series shot for the album Heathen. The world-renowned celebrity and fashion photographer will be present at the exhibition and together with Markus we are looking forward to welcoming you at the show! Introduction by Marc Krebs.
